IHRC mission is to support & develop international information and organisational Activities

London , 29.09.2019, 01:46 Time

USPA NEWS - International Human Rights Commission mission is to support and develop international information and organizational activities, as well as through active participation in current events in Europe and around the world, support of communication platforms between governments, government programs and diplomatic missions as well as participation in their creation.

To date, in cooperation with local organizations, the IHRC, has carried out humanitarian aid for over 236,000 people around the world. Through hundreds of our active volunteers associated in the IHRC Special Monitoring Mission, we are active in all corners of the world, running humanitarian aid programs, raising awareness and protecting human rights, and monitoring local social and political situations.

The main objectives of the International Human Rights Commission are the Service of Humanity without cast, color and creed. The struggle against the violation of the Human Rights, bloodshed and terrorism. To provide its services for the noble cause of maintaining peace between the nations groups individuals and organizations. To set up seminars and conferences on international issues of Human Rights, peace, democracy, education, health, child labor, women rights, against terrorism and narcotics or drugs trafficking.

To further strengthen our Network of Peace & Humanity across the Globe, International Human Rights Commission is looking for the Inspirational & Influential Personalities with their achievements & success in the field of Education, Climate Change, Humanitarian Activities, Human Rights, Poverty Elevation, Social & Humanitarian Work, Cultural Activities or in the field of Medicines to represent IHRC as AMBASSADOR OF PEACE from each representative country of IHRC.

You can apply or recommend us through our website www.ihrchq.org for assessment & initial recommendations from the relevant Regional & Country Heads before the final appointment & announcement by the IHRC Headquarter.
